Football Camps

If it is the local club, Liverpool or even Australia you want to play for then here is your chance to improve your skills and make the most of your holidays.

Dwayne Smith has been overseas for 8yrs developing players from as young as 4yrs through to 16yrs. He is now living back here in Ballina and brings his international experience to the local children. Dwayne's approach to individual development assures all players have fun while learning in a disciplined environment. Real progress is achieved throughout these sessions with the use of highly motivated game centered practices.
